District Coordinator, DCR

Pictured above on the right is John Seibel, the appointed At-Large Director for the Mountain Castles Soil and Water Conservation District. Mr. Seibel received the James River Watershed Connections Award at the 69th Anniversary meeting (1938 – 2007) of the Virginia Association of Soil and Water Conservation Districts. The meeting was held in Williamsburg, Virginia, and Mr. Seibel was unable to attend the conference.

The Mountain Castles Soil and Water Conservation Board of Directors met in regular session on December 18, 2007, and Mark Hollberg, the District Coordinator with the Virginia Department of Conservation and Recreation, had accepted the award for Mr. Seibel at the Association's Annual Meeting and then presented the framed certificate to John Seibel on December 18, 2007.
